DATA RECIPIENTS

Your personal data may be disclosed to entities providing services on our behalf that require the processing of data, including providers of office software, postal and telecommunication operators, and companies supporting the event. We may also disclose your personal data to public authorities legally authorised to receive such data.

Furthermore, data may be made available to users of online platforms where we promote our event (e.g. social media platforms or event websites).

YOUR RIGHTS

You have the right to:

- Access your personal data;
- Request rectification, erasure, restriction of processing or data portability;
- Object to processing based on our legitimate interests or performance of a task carried out in the public interest.

Where processing is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw it at any time. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out prior to its withdrawal.

Additionally, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Polish Data Protection Authority (UODO).

PROVISION OF DATA

Providing your personal data is voluntary but necessary to achieve the purposes of processing, including your participation in the event (except where data is processed based on consent – in such cases, non-provision will not affect your participation).

AUTOMATED DECISION-MAKING

No decisions concerning you will be made solely on the basis of automated processing, including profiling.
